

The Lighthouse partners with Dubai's cultural Art Dubai week with "The Bookshop by The Lighthouse" and hosting Christine Macel, Chief Curator of Paris' famous Centre Pompidou on the 19th March

The Lighthouse, D3 welcomes Christine Macel to its monthly 'TLH Conversations' series hosted by Founder Hashem Montasser in an informal discussion about Middle East art, and her longstanding position as Paris' iconic Centre Pompidou Chief Curator.

The Lighthouse conversation series invites creatives from all walks of life to share their most defining moments and experiences. The talk with Macel will take place on the 19th March at 7:30pm and The Lighthouse invites guests to come and listen to the incredible story Christine will share about her journey teaching at Ecole du Louvre in Paris to her almost two-decade long tenure as Chief Curator at the Centre Pompidou in Paris. The conversation with Christine, the curator of the 2017 Venice Biennale, will explore how Middle East artists are contributing to the global contemporary art scene and their influence on Christine and her curatorial practice.

In addition, The Lighthouse will be hosting 'The Bookshop by The Lighthouse' for the second consecutive time at Art Dubai. Situated alongside Art Dubai 2019's contemporary gallery halls, the books will be on sale throughout the week and range from artist monographs and gallery publications, to lifestyle books and art-inspired gifting items including the likes of MoMA Design Store (New York) and Ligne Blanche (Paris). Books and literature are integral parts of The Lighthouse identity, going hand-in-hand with creativity and art. The partnership with Art Dubai is the perfect match for the creative hub based in Dubai's buzzing Design District as The Lighthouse continues to cement its reputation for being a haven of all things art, design, food and culture.
